CANAL+ GROUP AND DREAMWORKS AGREE TO EXTEND EXCLUSIVE CONTRACT

(Paris - February 2, 2005) – CANAL+ Group has signed an agreement with DreamWorks LLC, the distribution arm of the famous Hollywood studio created by Steven Spielberg, Jeffrey Katzenberg and David Geffen. This new agreement enables Canal+ to offer its subscribers exclusively, first pay television broadcasts of the next 40 movies produced by DreamWorks SKG and DreamWorks Animation SKG.

Internationally acclaimed for the artistic quality of its live action and animated feature films, in 2004 DreamWorks high profile films again met with success including :

SHREK 2, directed by Andrew Adamson, Kelly Asbury and Conrad Vernon and presented at the 2004 Cannes Film Festival became the top-grossing domestic film of the year with a bounty of $436.5 million and the sixth highest grossing feature film of all time with a worldwide box office of $918.5 million.

THE TERMINAL directed by Steven Spielberg and starring Tom Hanks and Catherine Zeta-Jones.

SHARK TALE (Gang de Requins) directed by Vicky Jenson, Bibo Bergeron and Rob Letterman.

MEET THE FOCKERS (Mon Beau-Pere, Mes Parents et Moi) : A co-production with Universal Pictures, directed by Jay Roach, and starring Robert De Niro, Ben Stiller, Dustin Hoffman and Barbra Streisand.

Among DreamWorks SKG and DreamWorks Animation SKG's much-anticipated upcoming projects are :

MADAGASCAR : An animated feature film directed by Eric Darnell and Tom McGrath with the English voice talent of Ben Stiller, Chris Rock, Jada Pinkett-Smith and David Schwimmer (US release date 27 May 2005).

WAR OF THE WORLDS: A co-production with Paramount Pictures, directed by Steven Spielberg, and starring Tom Cruise, Dakota Fanning and Tim Robbins (US release date 29 June 2005).

JUST LIKE HEAVEN (based on the bestselling French novel by Marc Lévy ET SI C'ETAIT VRAI...): directed by Mark S. Waters, and starring Reese Witherspoon and Mark Ruffalo (filming).

This agreement covers exclusive first-window Pay-Per-View and Pay Television broadcast rights of the next 40 films to be distributed by DreamWorks Worldwide Television Distribution group for the CANAL+ premium channel and Kiosque pay-per-view service; and exclusive second-window pay television broadcast rights for the Group's movie theme channels for motion pictures directed by Steven Spielberg and animated motion pictures produced by DreamWorks Animation SKG.

CANAL+ currently holds exclusive first-run rights with the leading US studios, including DreamWorks, 20th Century Fox, Universal, Sony/Columbia, New Line, Miramax and Spyglass. CANAL+ also has a preferred agreement for exclusive broadcasts of recent feature films produced by the Walt Disney and Pixar animated film studios.

The movie channel, CANAL+ airs 400 films a year, of which 320 exclusive first-run broadcasts, for an average of nearly 30 French and foreign first-run films a month.

CANAL+ is also an official partner to France's César television awards and the Cannes Film Festival, for which it produces the prestigious opening and closing ceremonies, and has an exclusive agreement to broadcast the Academy Awards® every year. The channel also gives considerable airtime to new-to-TV programs, as well as to shows devoted wholly to movie news and great names in cinema.

DreamWorks Animation SKG is dedicated to the development and production of animated feature films and television projects to entertain a wide-ranging audience, as well as consumer products to support the release of its films.

DreamWorks SKG was formed in October 1994, by its three principal partners, Steven Spielberg, Jeffrey Katzenberg and David Geffen. The studio is actively involved in the production of live-action motion pictures and network and cable television programs, and the distribution of both live-action and animated feature films as well as home entertainment.
